

CviLux Company Backgrounder

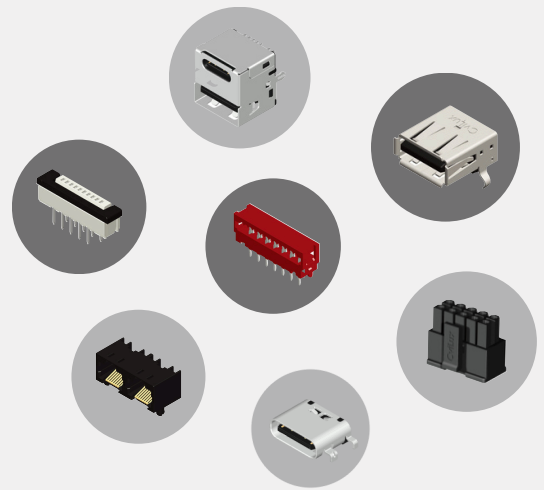

About CviLux

Founded in 1990, CviLux Corporation is an engineering-driven solution provider of electronic interconnect components and cables. The company is headquartered in Taiwan and is listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange (8103.TW) with more than 3,000 employees worldwide.

Company Facts:

- Factory locations (8): China (5 facilities), Taiwan, Laos and Vietnam
- Global Sales Offices: North America, Laos, Germany, Korea, Malaysia, Japan, Brazil, Taiwan, China and Vietnam
- Markets: Automotive, Industrial, Consumer, Networking, Optoelectronics, New Energy, Laptops and Home Automation

Product offerings: board-to-board, FFC/FPC, IDC, power, waterproof, wire-to-board, and USB-C connectors; FFC and LVDS cables; D-Sub; USB (A, B & C) cables; Pogo pins; high- power solutions; RF cables; and I/Os.

We strive to integrate ESG sustainability principles throughout our organization and offer customer-specific, green-certified solutions. CviLux founder and Chairman, Steve Yang, in his new role as CSO, leads our ESG program and is committed to help the company achieve long-term business success and sustainable development. We continue to strive for improvement in our ESG practices, creating greater value for our customers, employees, shareholders and society.

CviLux R&D strength stems from our more than 340 patents, as well as our awards, international qualifications and certifications. Our Global Certifications include: ISO9001, ISO14001, QC0800000, ISO14064, and IATF16949.

